Re: Andrew Smalls v. P.O. Collins., et. al.,
Docket No.: 14 Civ. 2326 (CBA)

Your Honor:

I represent plaintiff Andrew Smalls in the above-referenced civil rights action brought pursuant to 42 U.S.C. §1983. I write now to respectfully request that the Court extend the time for plaintiff to file his motion for Attorney's fees until thirty days (30) days after the Court decides the parties' respective Fed. R. Civ. P. 50 & 59 motions. Brian Francolla, Esq., Counsel for defendants, consents to this request.

The reason for the request is that there is simply no reason for the parties, or the Court, to address issue of Attorney's fees until the Court has resolved any post-trial motion practice relating to the Judgment entered on May 22, 2019. (Docket No. 130).

Based on the foregoing, plaintiff respectfully requests the Court extend the time that plaintiff has to file his motion for Attorney's fees until thirty (30) days after the Court has ruled on the parties' post-trial motions.

I thank the Court for its consideration.

Respectfully Submitted,

John J. Meehan

Cc: Elissa Fudim, Esq. / Brian Francolla, Esq.
Counsel for defendants.
